

73. According to the text, the idea that sleep is relevant to learning

- A) seems to be absolutely new and surprising.
- B) has been frequently studied without success.
- C) has never received attention from the scientific community.
- D) is common knowledge among scientists.

Assunto: Interpretação textual

O primeiro parágrafo do texto, logo na primeira frase (“Sleep is known to be crucial for learning and memory formation”), apresenta uma estrutura de voz passiva que enfatiza a ideia de que essa relação entre o dormir e o aprender é de conhecimento geral.

Item: D
