

Meeting new friends

SCHOOL

Today is a beautiful day of January and it is Matheus' first day in his new school.

Matheus is very anxious to meet his new friends and teachers.

He was eating his breakfast when the school bus arrived.

"Hurry up, Matheus!" – said his mom.

Matheus took his backpack and went to the bus.

Matheus is wheelchair user, and the bus has facilities for people with disabilities.

- Bye, Mommy! Bye, Daddy!
- Bye, Matheus! Have a nice day at school!

Matheus found his class, and the teacher was already there.
Matheus said:

- Excuse-me teacher!
- Come in!

- Good morning, class!

- Good morning, teacher!

- My name is teacher Lucy. I am your English teacher, and we are going to learn many things along this year, but first I want to know you.

Teacher Lucy asks:

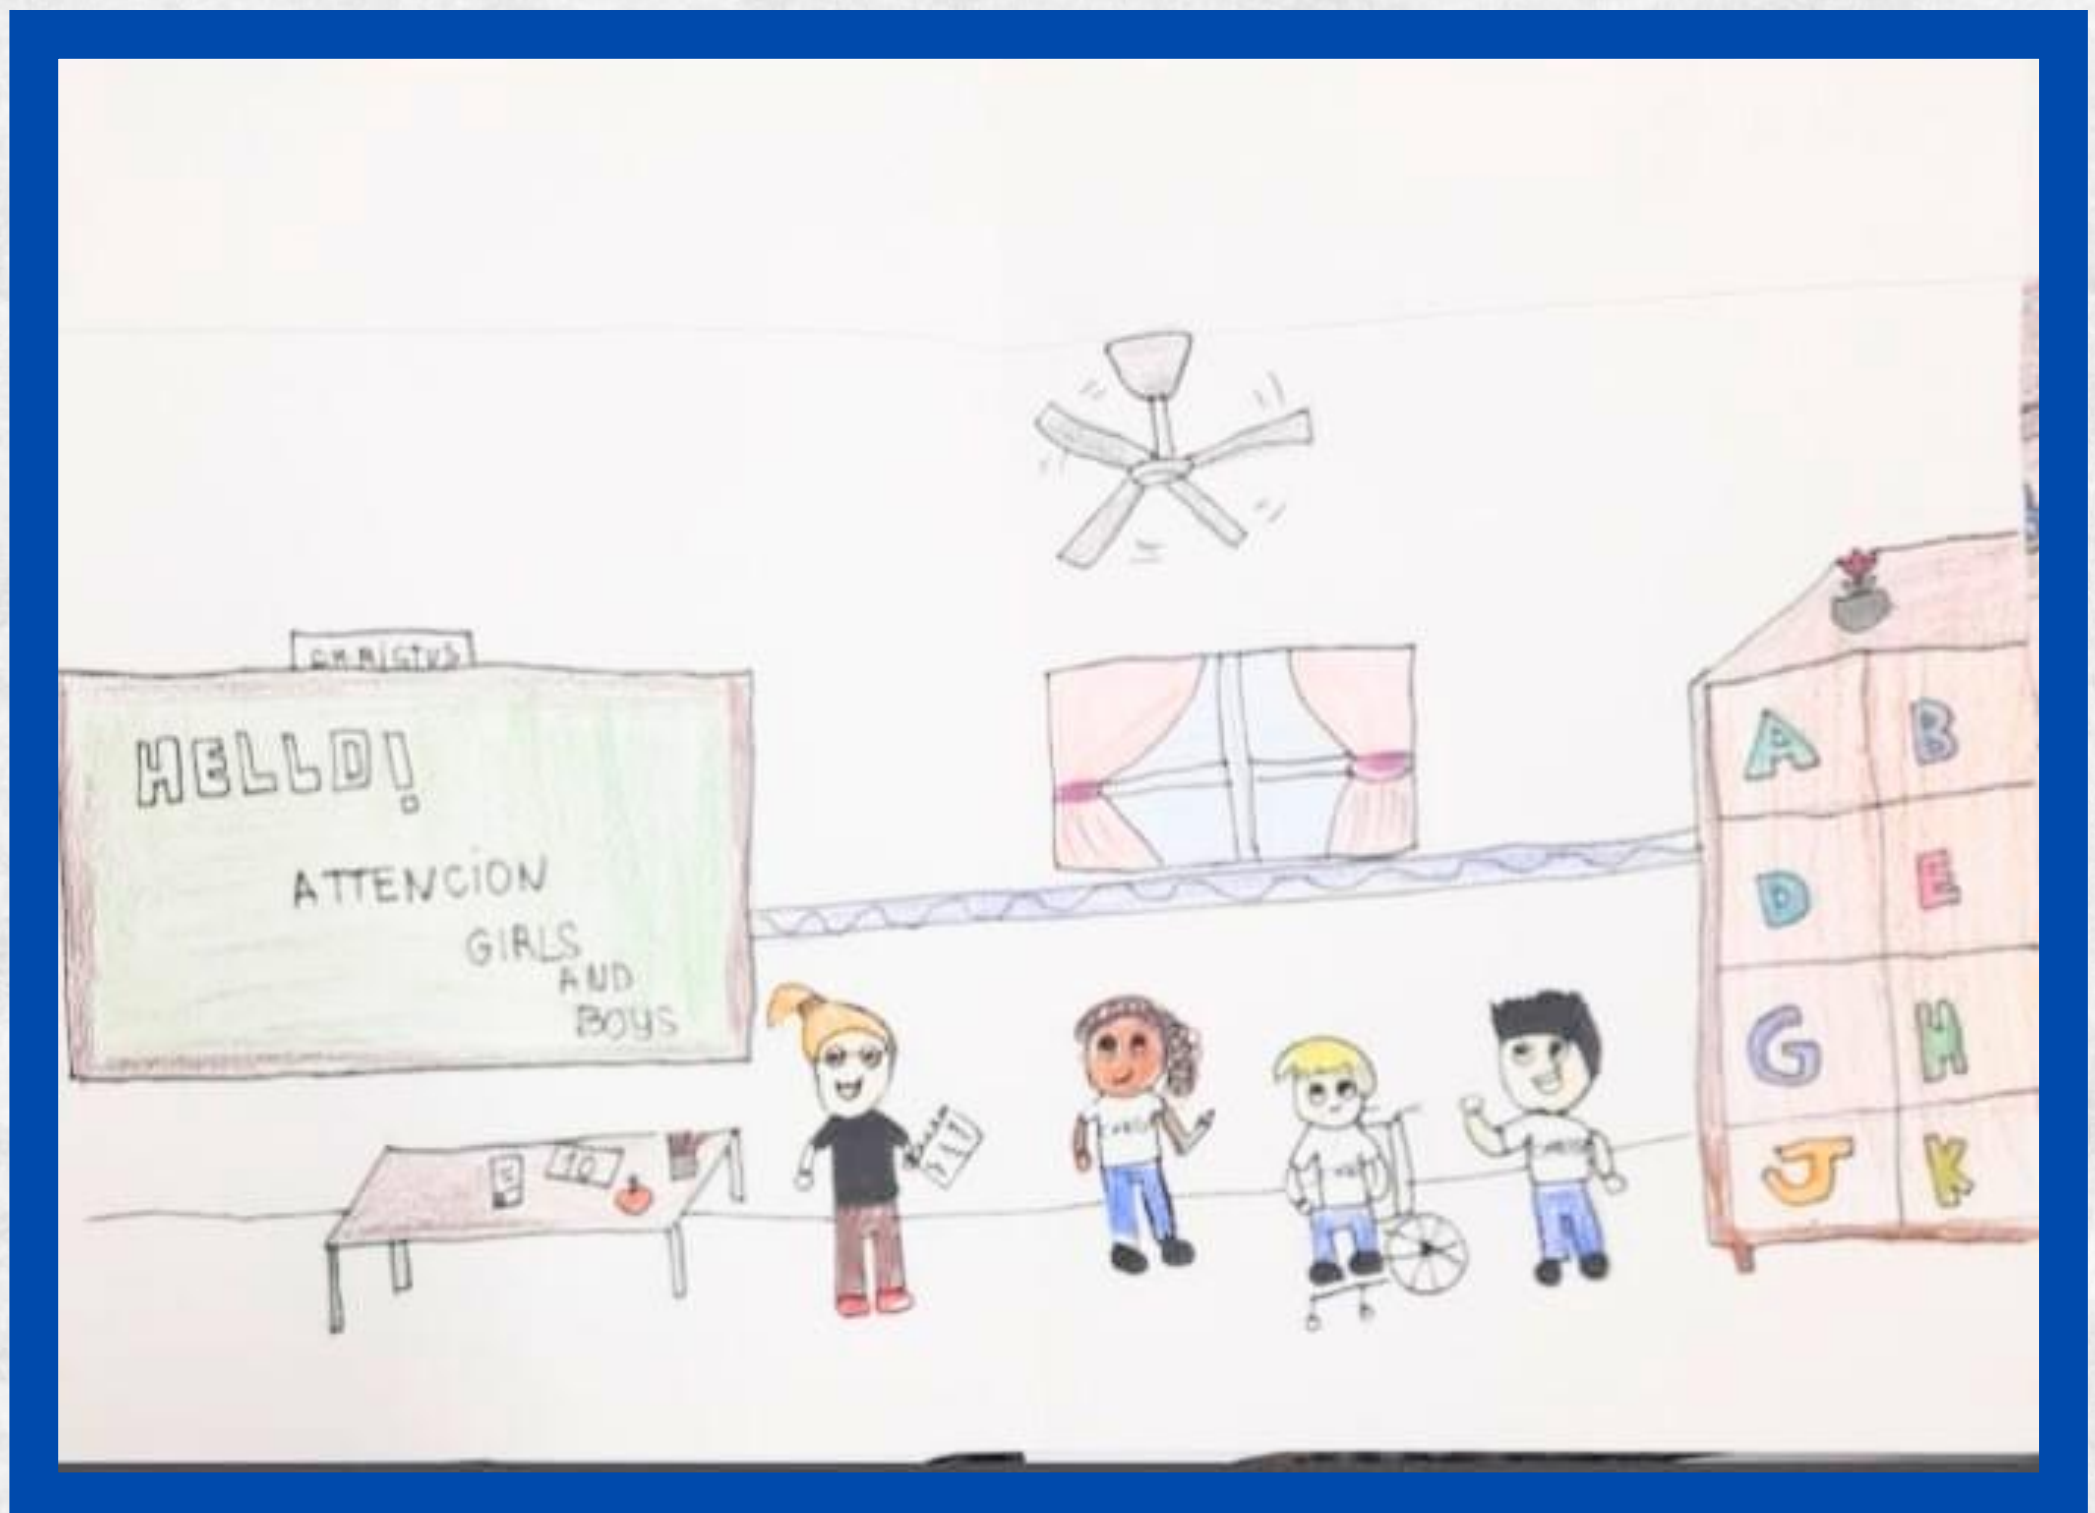

- Who wants to be the first to introduce themselves to the class?

"Me!!!!" - says Luiza.

- My name is Luiza. I am 7 years old. I love English and playing volleyball.

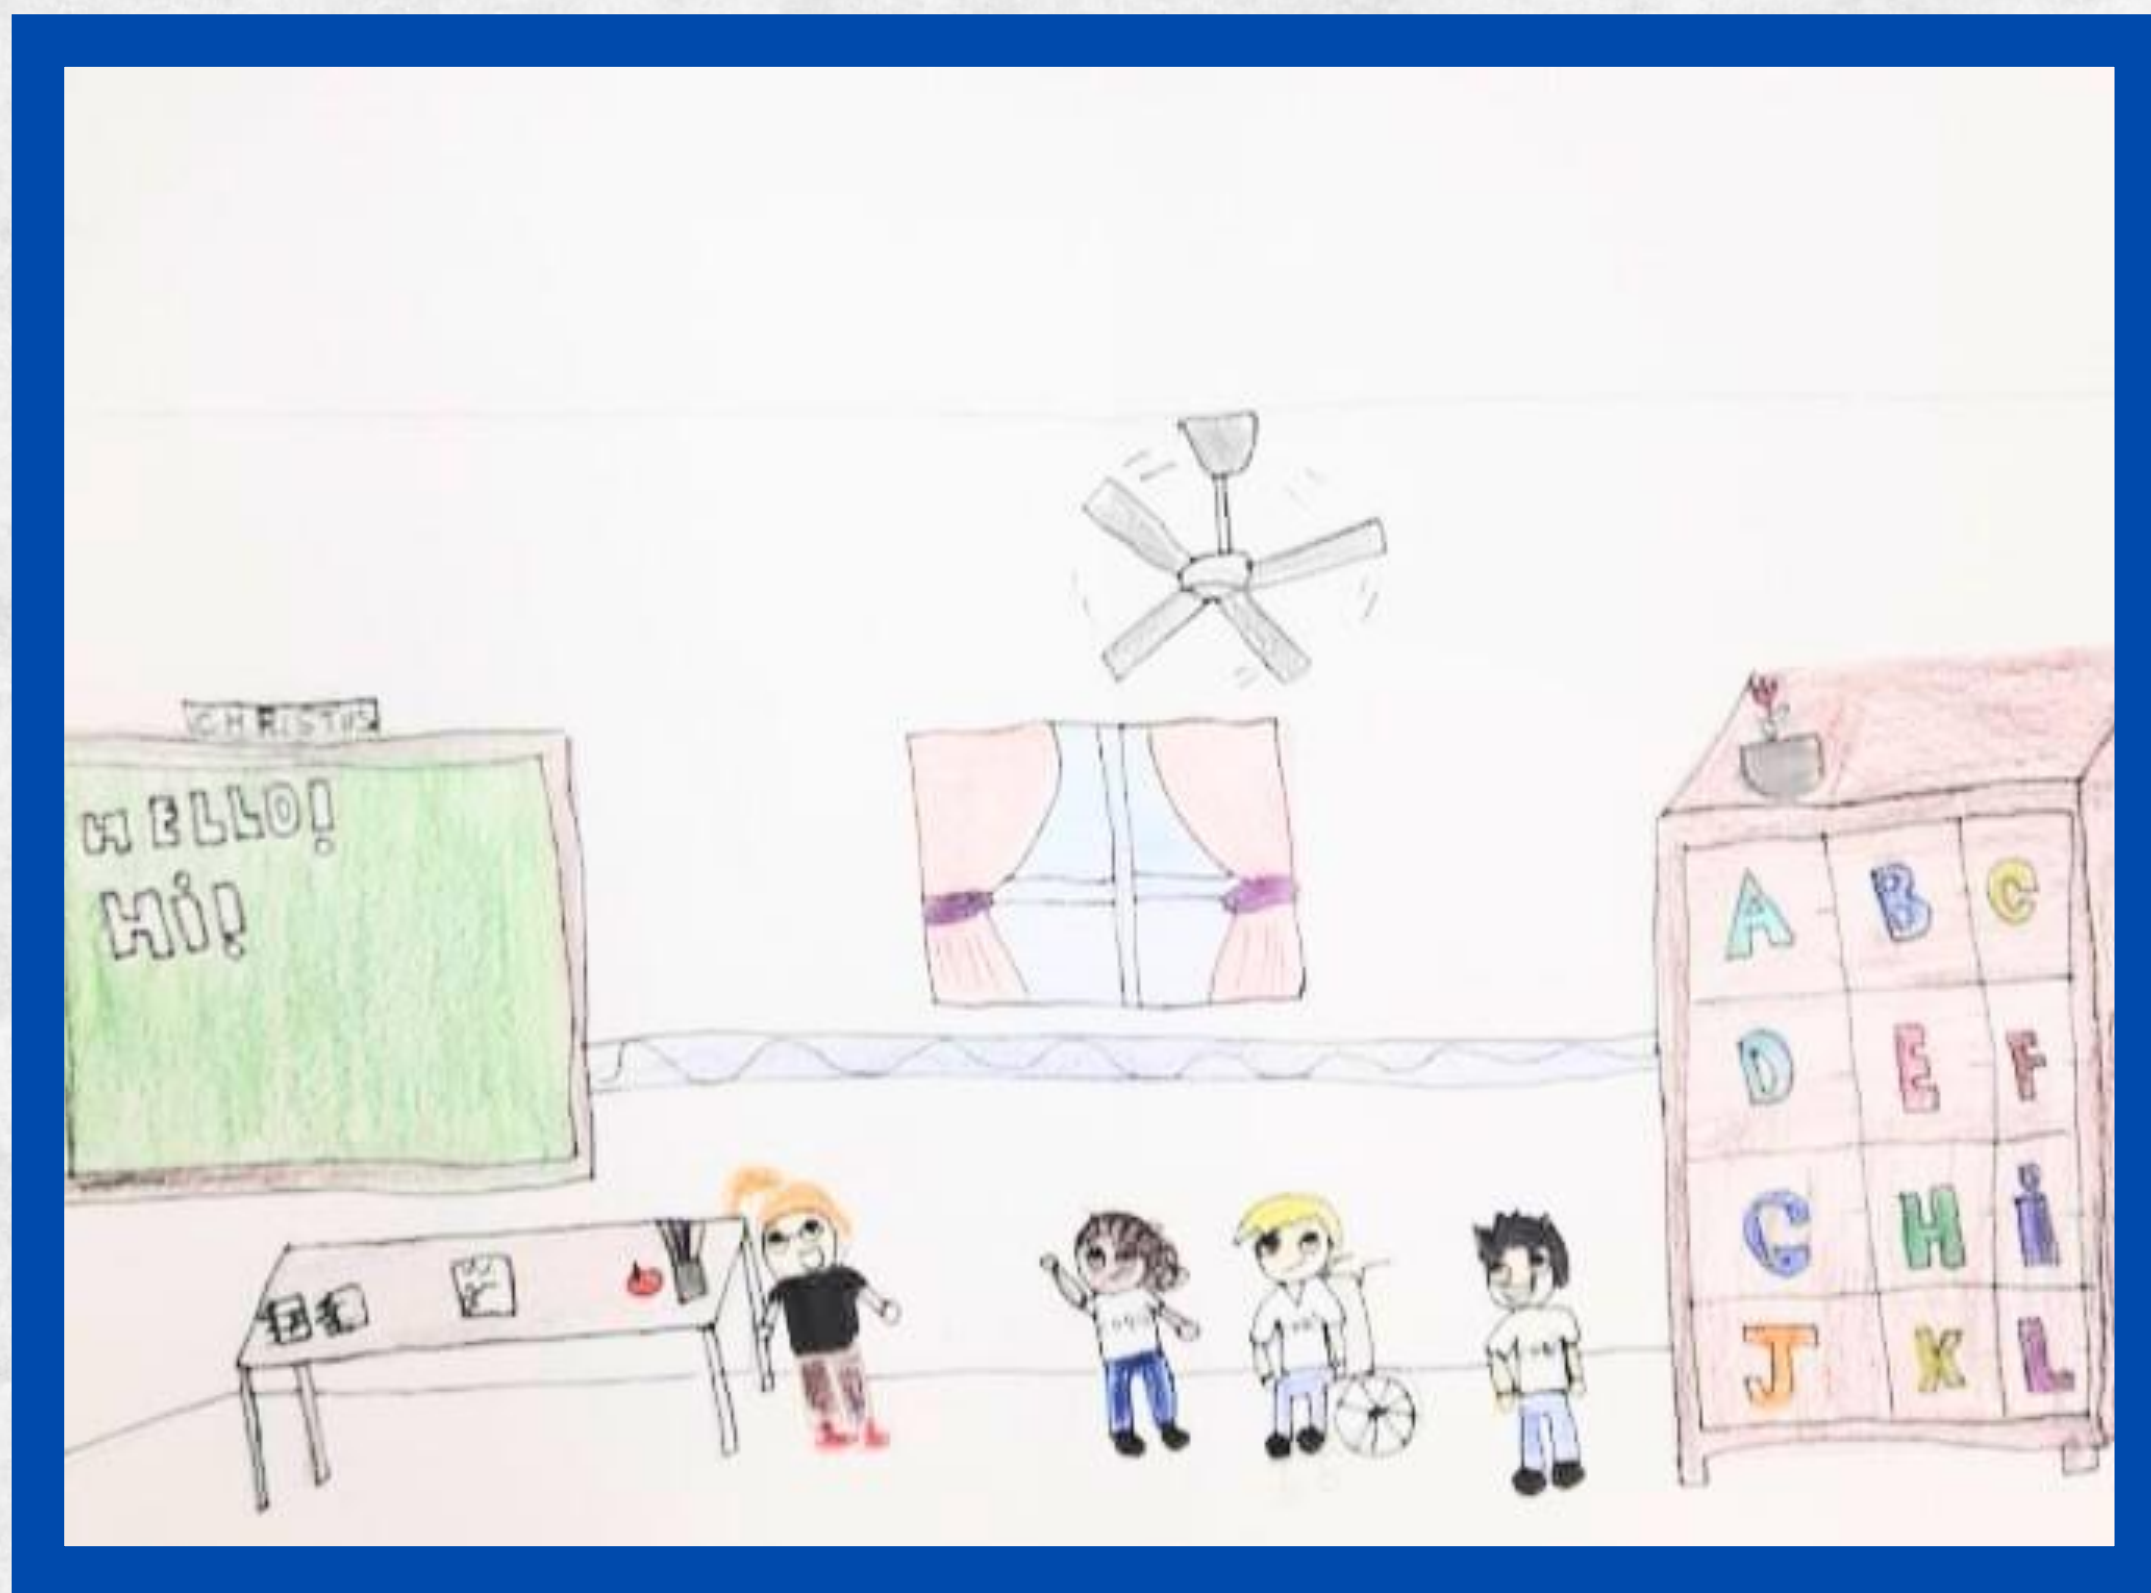

"Ok, Luiza, thank you!" - says the teacher.

"Anytime, teacher!" - answer Luisa.

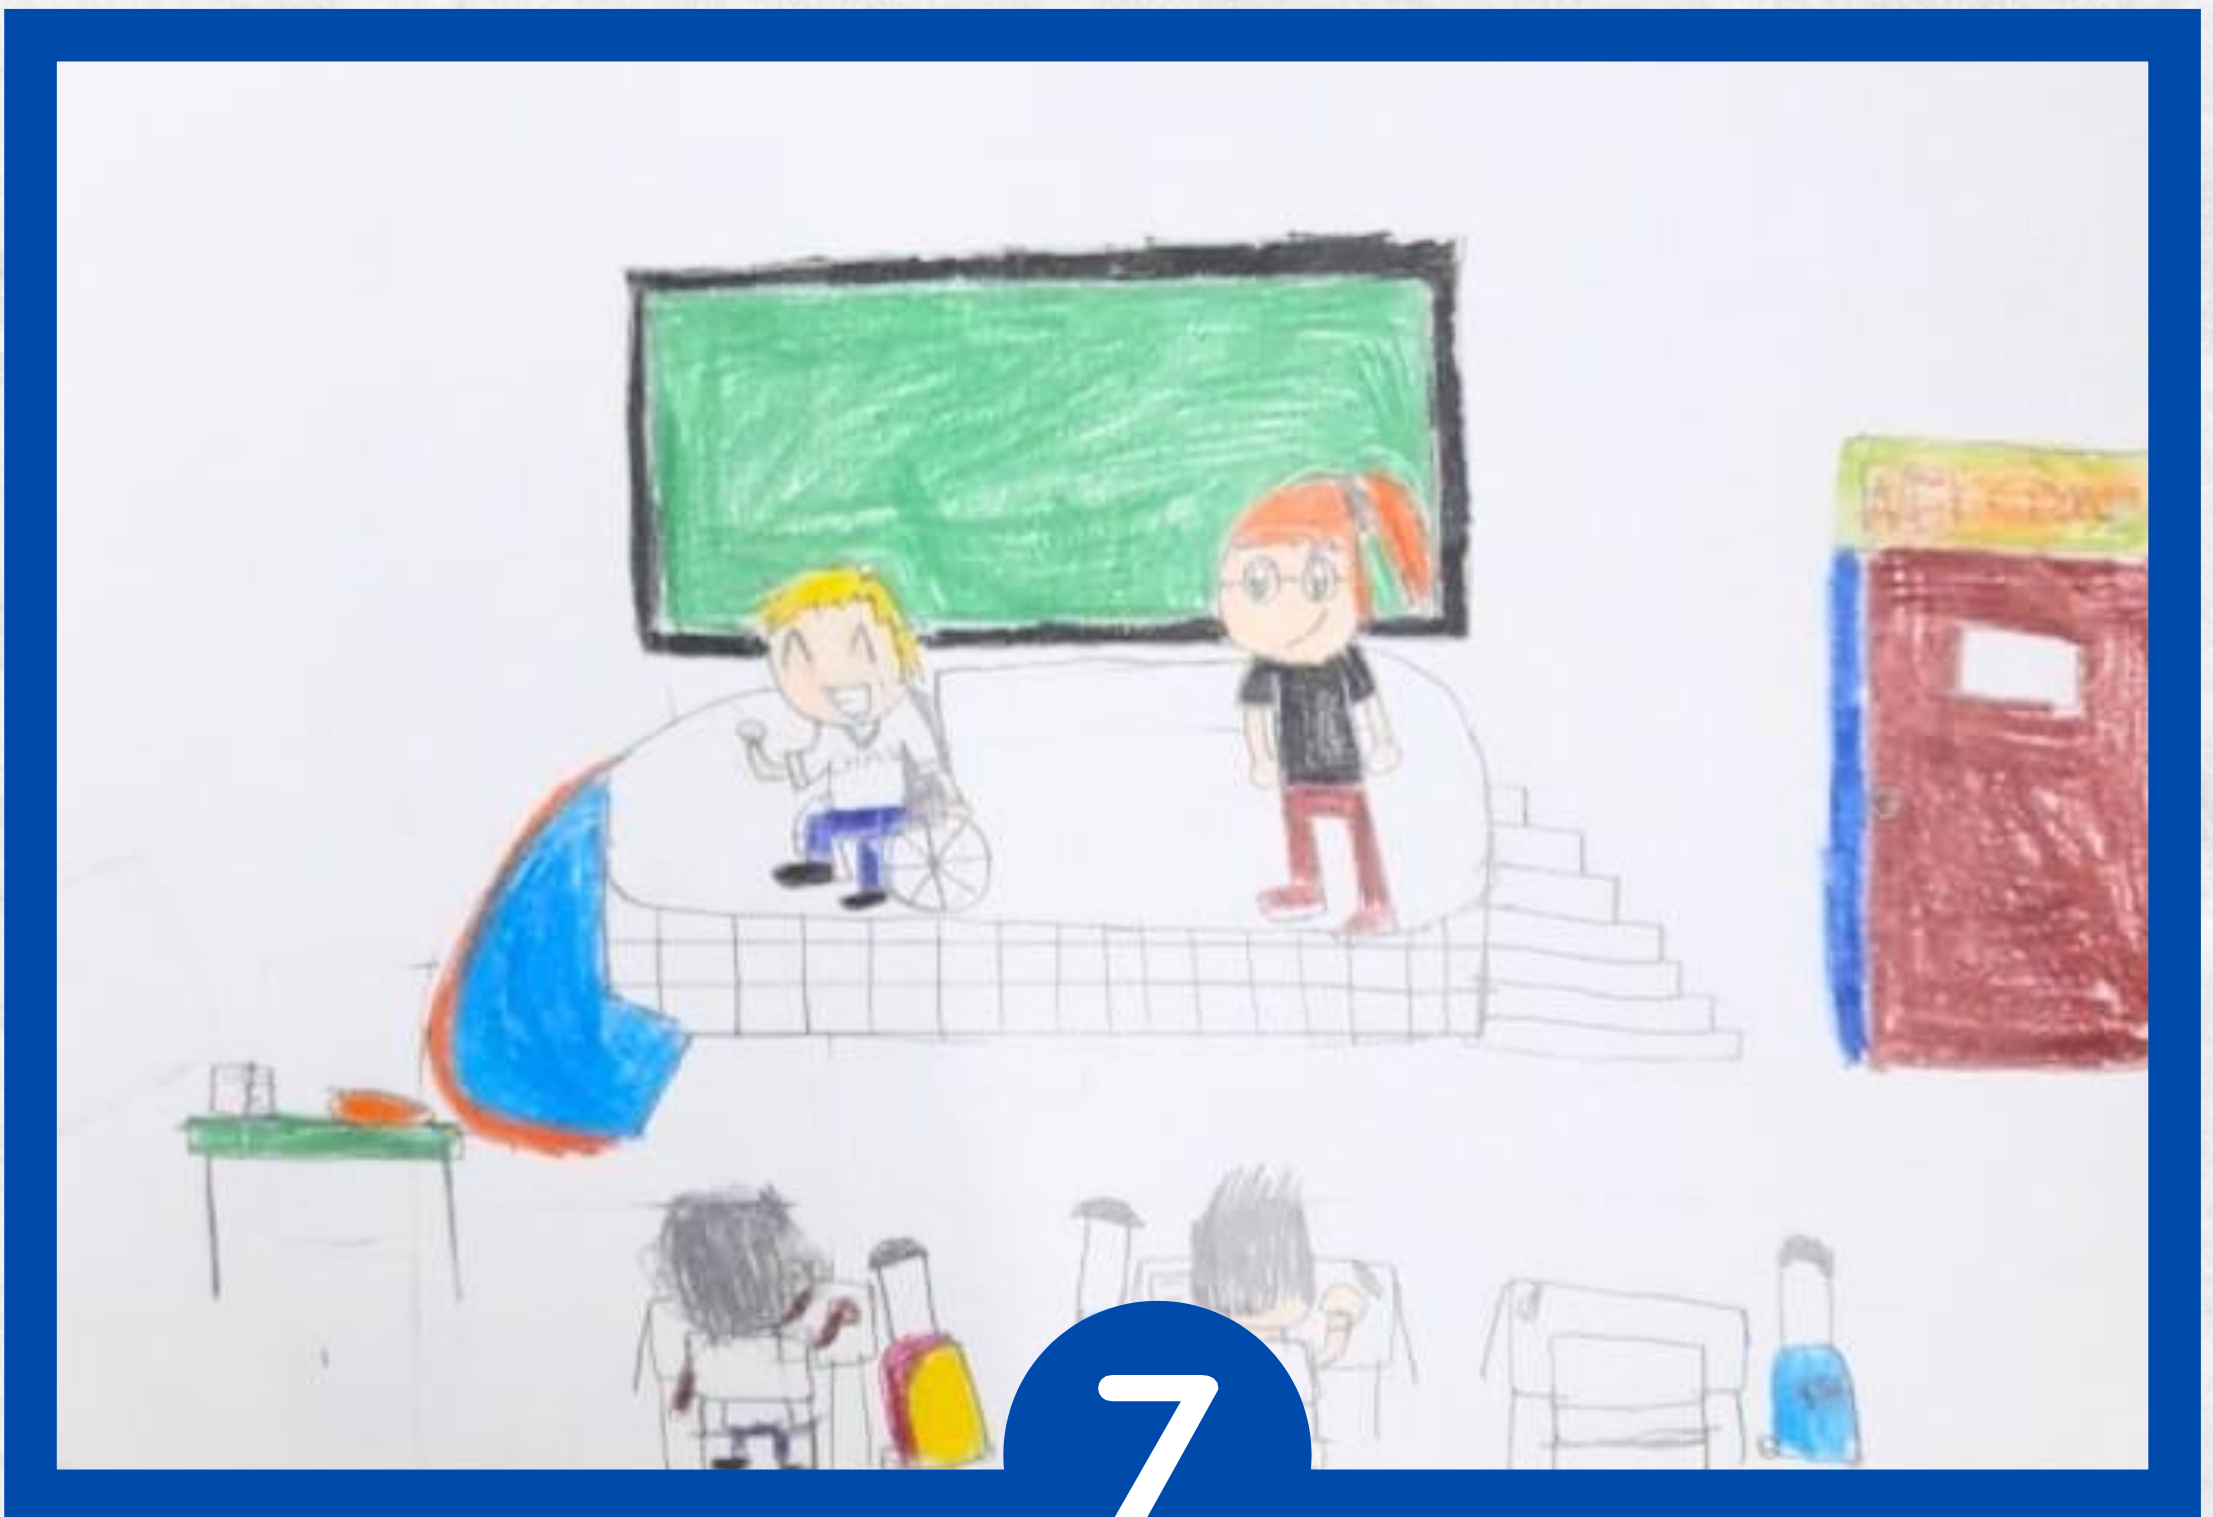

- And you, what's your name?

- My name is Gabriel. I am 8. I like making friends and playing computer games.

“And you? Are you new at school?” - asks teacher Lucy.

- Yes, it is my first time here. My name is Matheus. I am 8 years old. I like English and playing computer games too.

"Nice to meet you, Matheus!" - says teacher Lucy.

"Nice to mee you too, teacher Lucy!" - answers Matheus.

Matheus is very happy, because he loved to meet his new friends.

In the end of the class, Matheus and Gabriel took the school bus together. They talked a lot about their favorite computer games, and they made plans to invite the class to play at Matheus' house on the weekend. Matheus really likes to make friends.

Matheus arrived home very happy and talked about his day at school while watching TV with his parents.

His mom and dad were happy with the idea of his friends coming to play games at the weekend.

After dinner, Matheus said good night and went to bed.
Matheus set the alarm clock to wake up early the next day and laid in bed feeling happy for his first day at school.

Biography

We are the 7C class of Christus Sul. Our classmates are friendly, and we have studied together since kindergarten. We like playing fresh ball and soccer in our free time.

Our teacher, Luciana Firmiano, supported us throughout this project.
