ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To God, we offer our deepest gratitude for endowing us with creativity, determination, and resilience. Your guidance has been our constant companion through every challenge and victory, illuminating our path with Your grace.

To our families, thank you for your unwavering patience, understanding, and faith in our abilities. Your support has been the cornerstone of our journey, and your love and guidance have empowered us to reach new heights.

To Colégio Christus, we extend our heartfelt appreciation for creating a nurturing and supportive educational environment. Your commitment to academic excellence has significantly enriched our personal and intellectual growth.

To our teachers, Mr. João Pedro Viana and Mrs. Sueli Mendes, we are profoundly grateful for your inspiration and guidance. Your passion for teaching and your dedication to our learning have not only enhanced our skills but have also instilled in us a lifelong love for learning.

To our readers, thank you for joining us on this incredible journey. We hope our story inspires you, uplifts you, and brings joy to your heart. May our words resonate with you, sparking positivity and hope.

7th Grade - Olympics 1 2024
Christus Barão de Studart

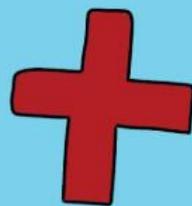

The Silva family lives in Fortaleza and loves exploring their beautiful city. Their dream? To discover the places hidden in every corner.

Their first adventure takes them to the Central Market, where colorful stalls stand in rows, filled with fruits, crafts, and treats. Sofia eagerly explores, finding treasures around.

Next, they navigate their way to Fortaleza General Hospital. Inside, they marvel at the busy aisles and friendly faces, learning about the important work of doctors and nurses who help people every day.

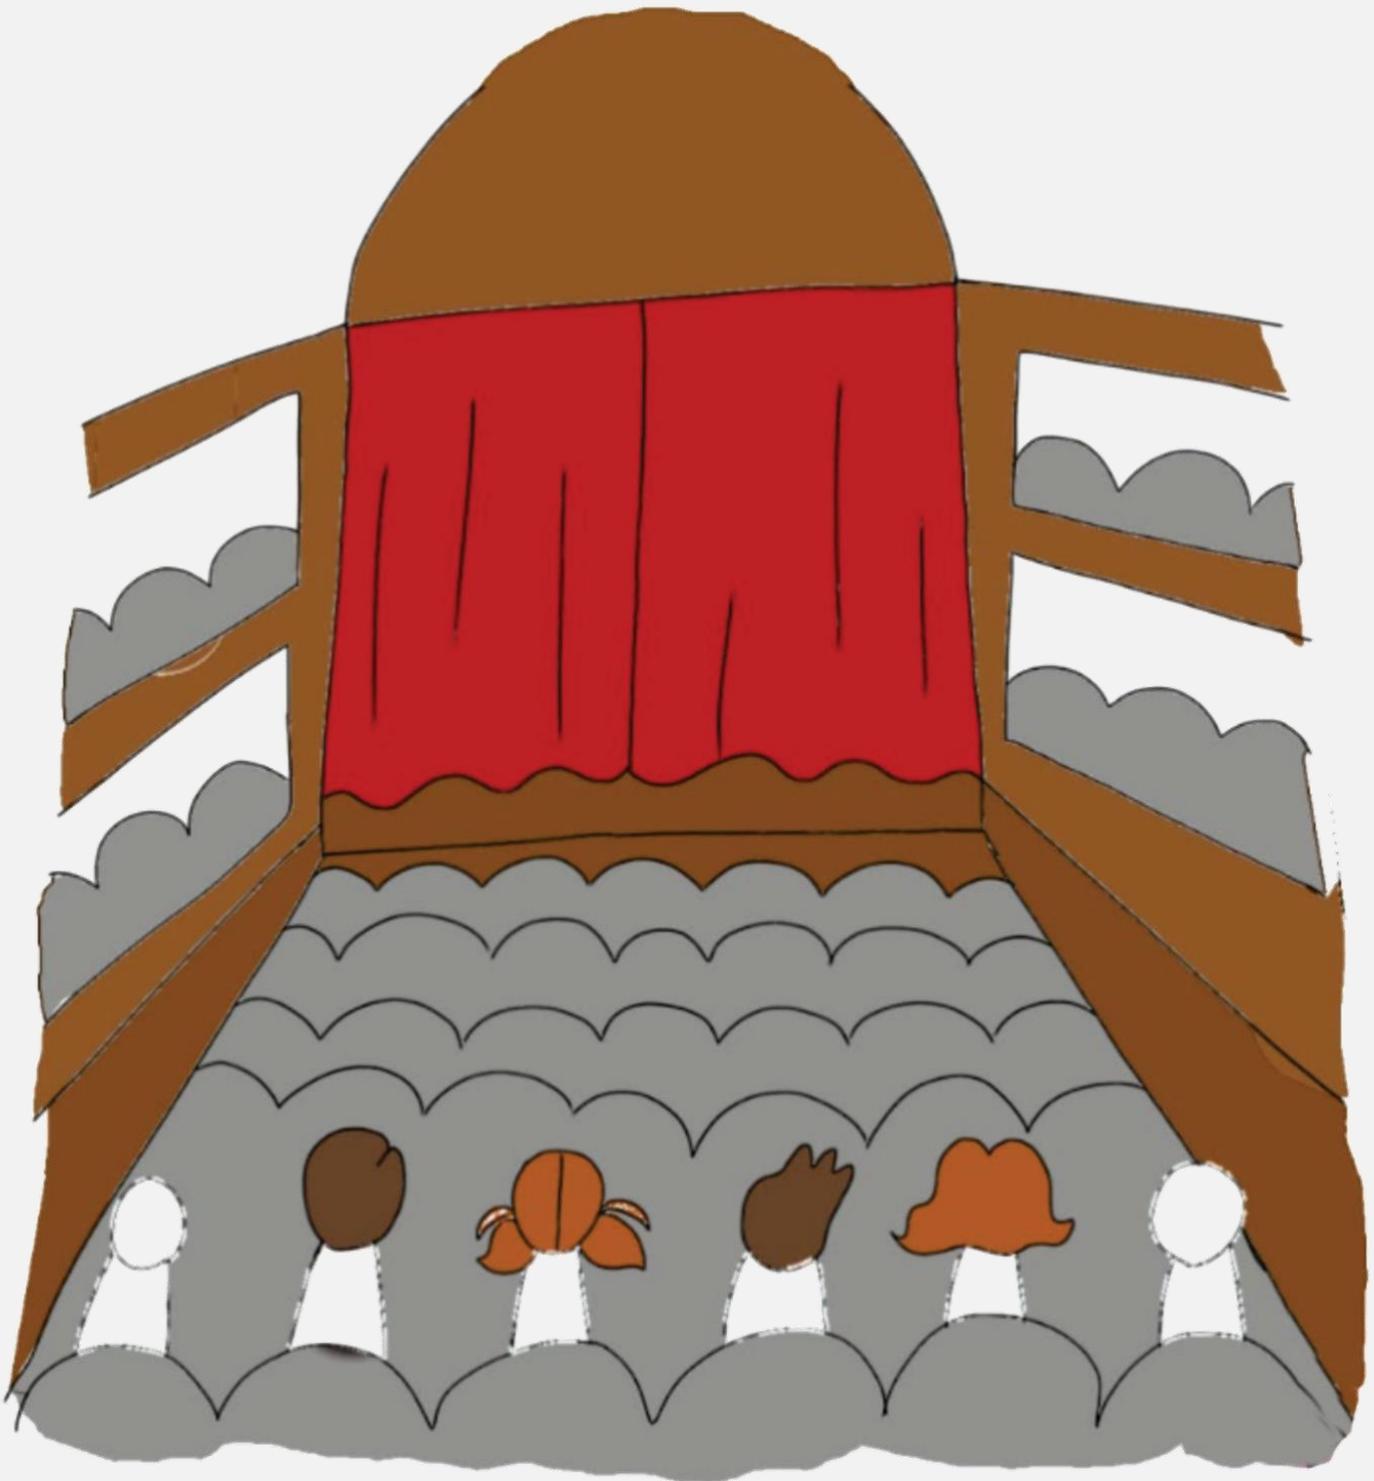

They then go to Iracema Beach, where soft sand stretches as far as the eye can see. With waves crashing gently nearby, they spend the day swimming, building sandcastles, and soaking up the sun.

At Beira Mar Avenue, stalls line the boardwalk, offering trinkets, souvenirs, and local delicacies. They wander through, tasting treats and finding treasures to take home.

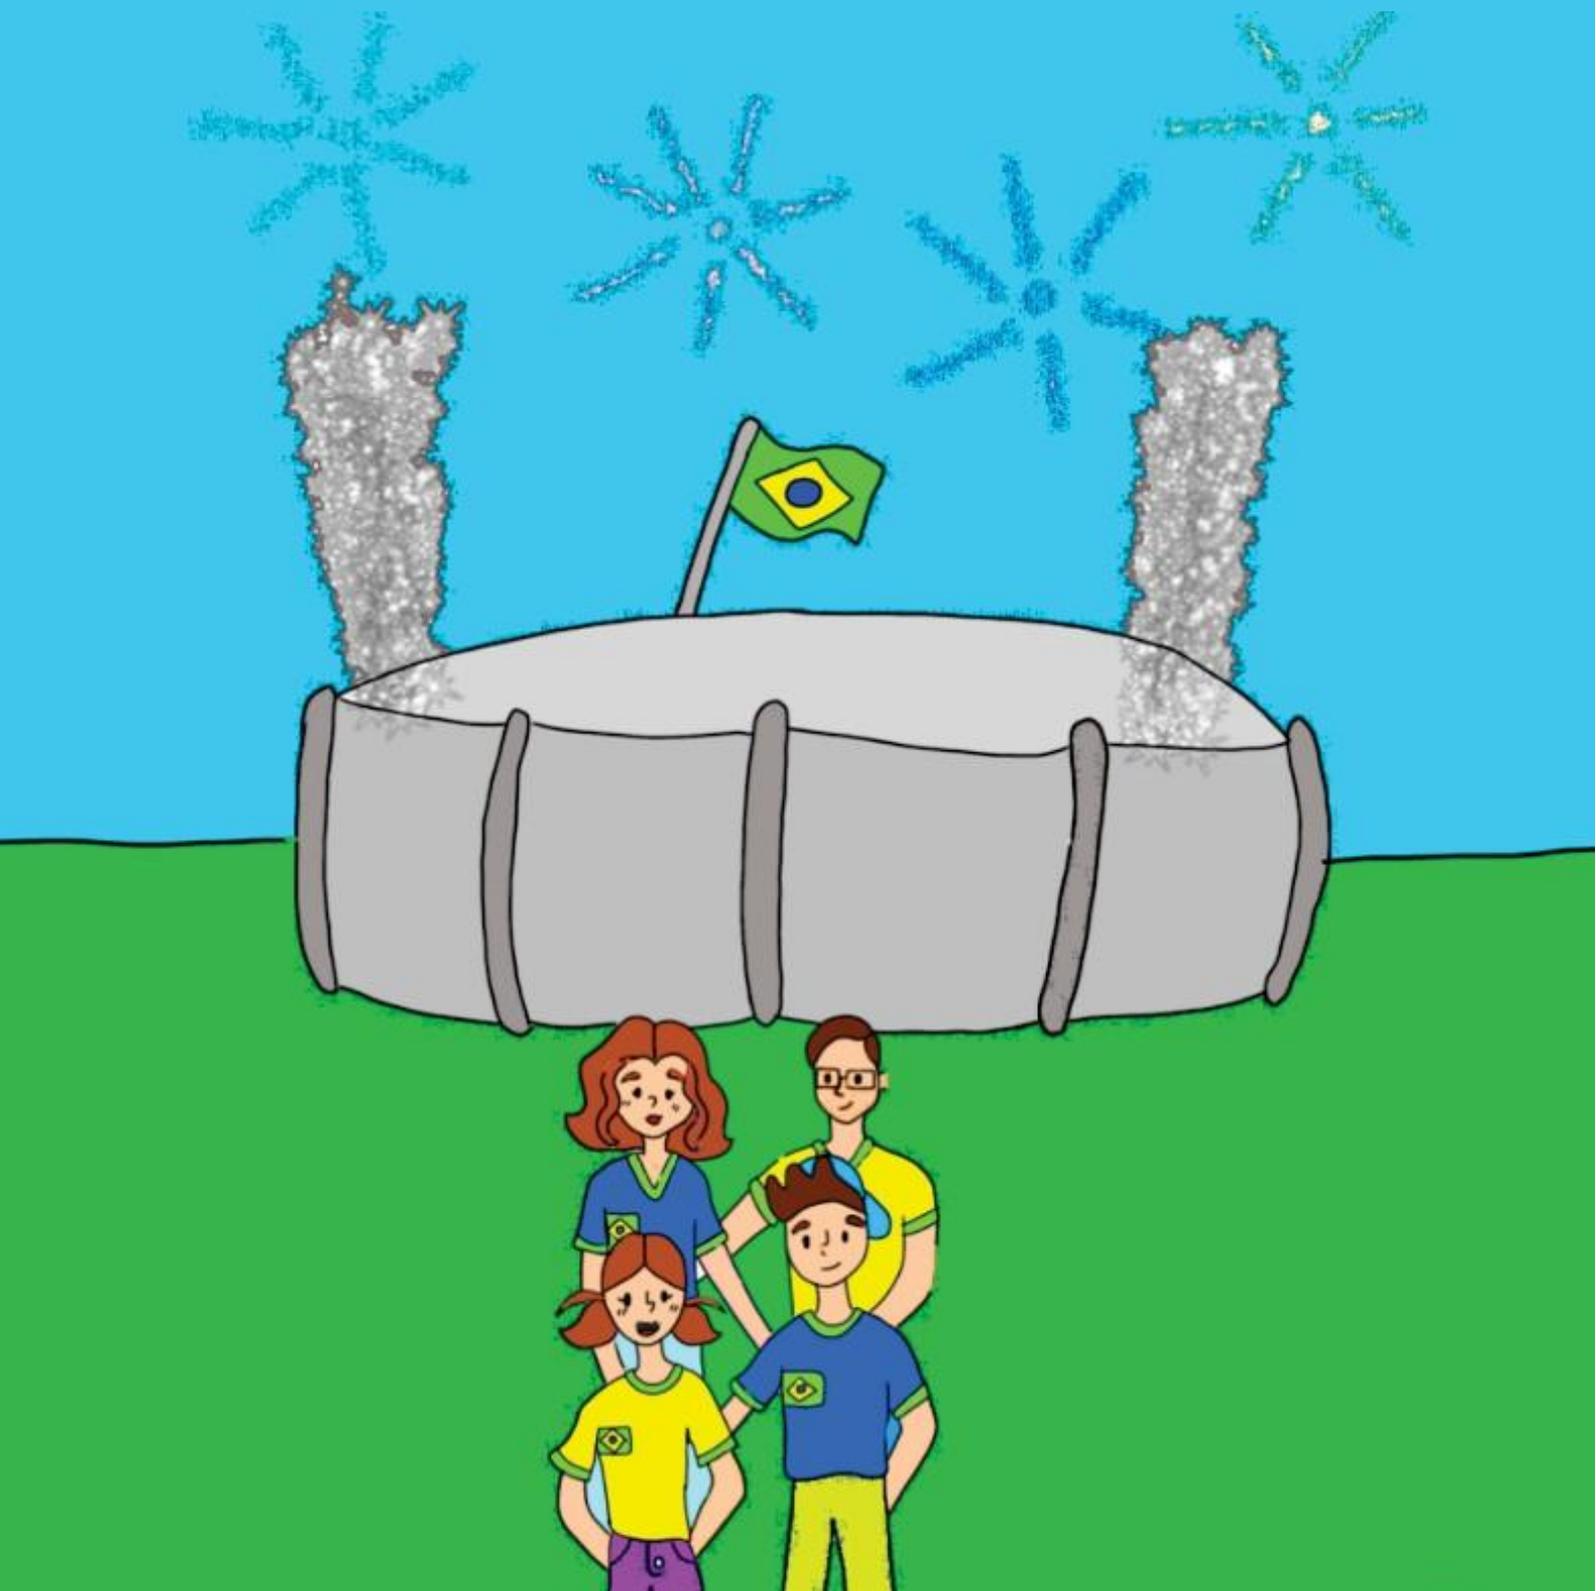

Their path leads them to José de Alencar Theater, a building with grand arches and sweeping staircases. Inside, they explore, imagining the performances in the space.

At Cocó Park, towering trees create a canopy overhead as they wander along winding paths. They find a cozy spot for a picnic, surrounded by the sounds of nature.

Their journey continues to Castelão Stadium, where crowds cheer and flags fly high. They tour the stadium, exploring the stands and running across the field.

As the day ends, they return home, their hearts are full of memories and smiles on their faces. The Silva family reflects on their adventure, grateful for the sights they saw and the memories they made.

And as they look ahead, they know that their beloved Fortaleza still holds many more treasures waiting to be discovered.

CLASS BIOGRAPHY

Our class stands out not just for our small size, but for our immense commitment to excellence in everything we undertake. We are a group of students united by a shared dedication to not only meet but exceed the expectations set before us. This dedication is evident in the quality of our work, our attention to detail, and our perseverance in the face of challenges.

Our class culture is built on a foundation of mutual support and relentless pursuit of knowledge, which enables us to achieve remarkable outcomes despite our limited numbers. This book project is a prime example of our commitment in action, showcasing our ability to pull together and produce work that is not only educational but inspirational. We hope you find as much joy in reading our book as we found in creating it. Let the adventure begin, and may you be inspired by our story!
