The Big Picnic

Food is better when we share

7th Grade O1 2026 – Morning

Barão de Studart

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported us throughout this project.

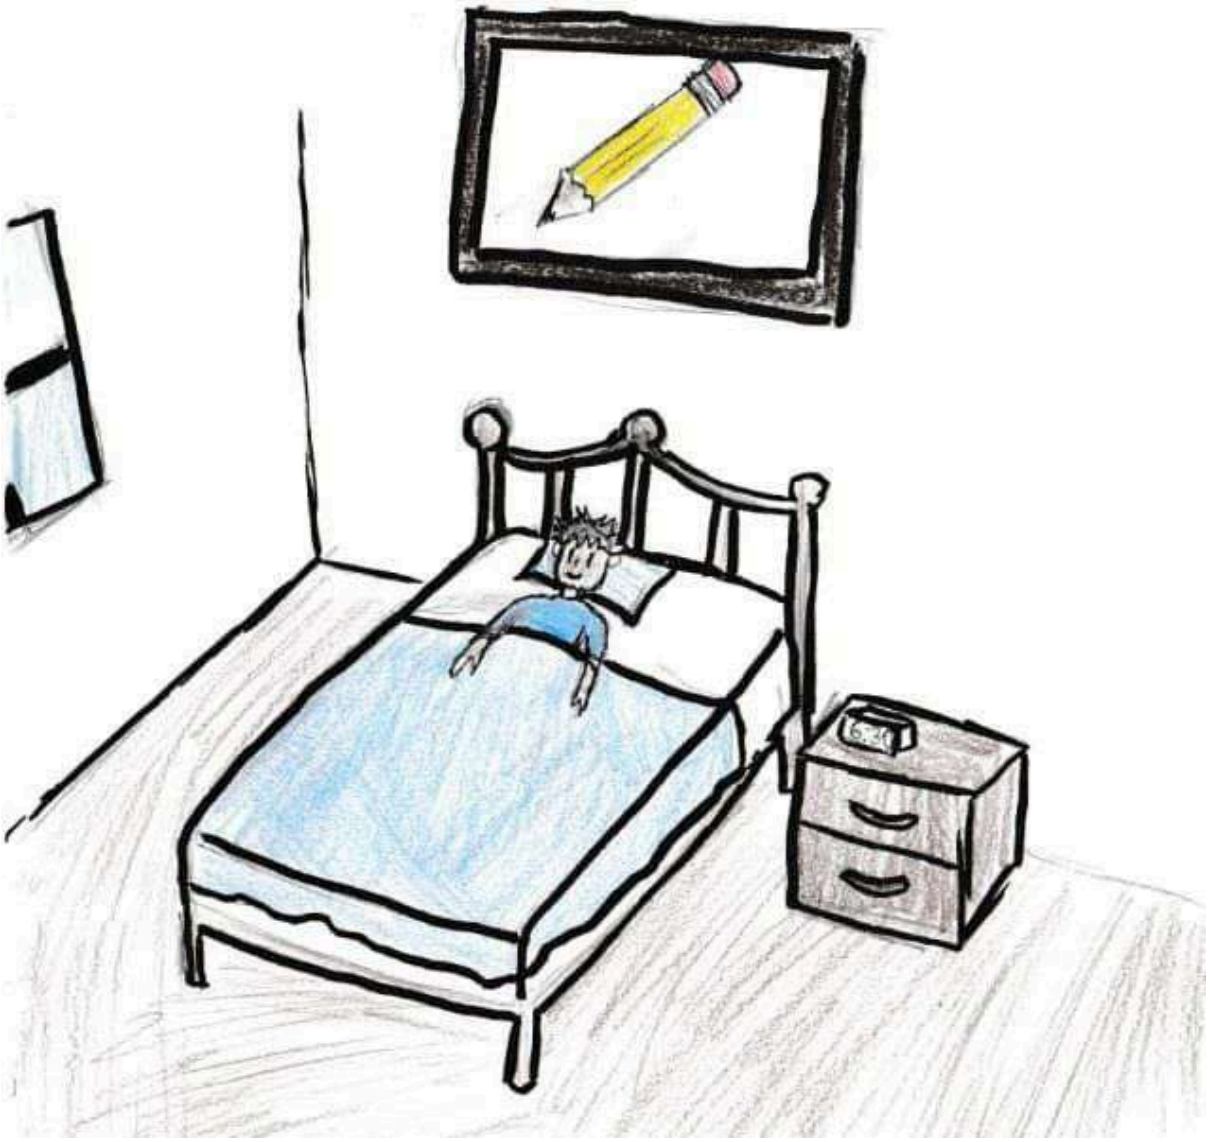

To our families, thank you for your endless love and encouragement. Your faith in us keeps us strong. To our teachers, we are grateful for your guidance, patience, and for helping us grow a little more each day. And to God, thank You for blessing us with health, strength, and inspiration.

Finally, to everyone reading our work, we hope it brings you joy and inspiration, just as it did for us while creating it!

7th Grade O1 – Class of 2026

Christus Barão de Studart

Daniel woke up happy because today was picnic day. His best friend Lucas, Pedro, Leo, and Sofie were going on the picnic too.

At breakfast, Daniel asked his mom about the picnic:
"Mom, is it time yet?" He said.
"Almost, sweetie," Mom said. "Your friends will be here soon."

Just then, knock, knock, knock! Lucas, Pedro, Leo, and Sofie were at the door, each carrying their own basket and wearing big smiles.

"Ready for the best picnic ever?" Sofie said.

Daniel smiled happily. "Food is better when we share!"

They went to Coco Park. Each friend brought a basket with fruits, sandwiches, juice, cookies, chocolates, and cakes. When they arrived at Coco Park, they had lots of fun: riding bikes, playing football, sailing boats, and hiking.

After having a lot of fun, they sat down to have their picnic.

Lucas forgot to bring his snack, so he asked his friends to share with him. However, no one wanted to share.

Daniel saw that his friends refused to share, so he decided to share his cake with Lucas. After Daniel's kind action, the others decided to do the same.

Finally, everyone realized that sharing was better than being selfish!

CLASS BIOGRAPHY

We are the students of 7th Grade O1 – Class of 2026, and we are really happy to share this book with you! Making it wasn't always easy. We all had different ideas and opinions, but we learned how to listen, respect, and work together as a team.

During this project, we discovered new things about ourselves, used our creativity, and learned a lot. Every page shows our effort, imagination, and teamwork. We hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed creating it. Thanks for being part of our story!

Mr. João Pedro Viana

During a picnic, Daniel, Lucas, Pedro, Leo, and Sophie had to share their snacks, which led to some difficulties. But is it really easy to share the things we like with others?
