7° A TARDE – DIONISIO TORRES

Acknowledgments

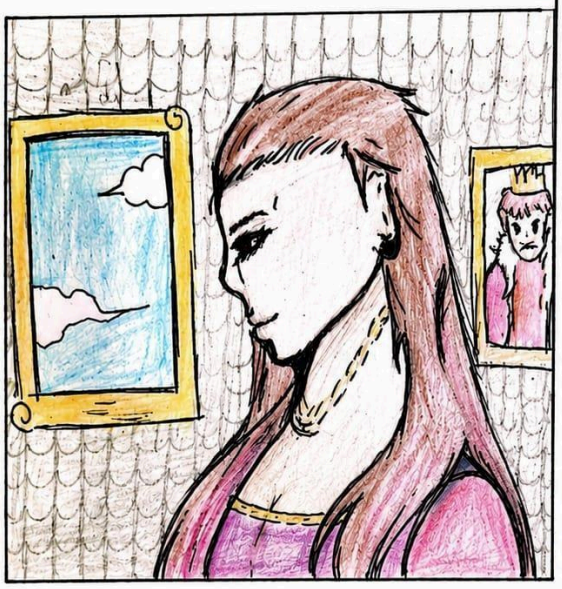

We thank the pedagogical coordination team for this wonderful activity, our teacher Davi for supporting us throughout this learning journey, and all the teams who made this special experience possible.

We learned a lot, shared great moments, and created beautiful memories together. We hope to have more amazing experiences like this in the near future!

New Friends

The sisters arrive at the palace.

Maya is very happy! They are running in the garden.

They talk about music, animals, and school.

For the first time, Maya is not Alone.

"You are my best friends", Maya says.

Biography:

We are the 7th Grade A afternoon class, a group of students who love learning, sharing experiences, and discovering new things together. Throughout our journey, we have learned important lessons, made great memories, and built strong friendships. With our teachers' help, especially Professor Davi, we continue to grow, face challenges, and learn something new every day. We are proud of our journey and excited about the experiences yet to come.

Maya is a princess, but a sad princess; she is alone and wants a friend.

Maya’s father is King Arthur. He thinks the world is dangerous.

Leo is a kind and smart prince. One day, he saw Maya, and he wanted to help her.

Leo makes a plan; he will talk with the king.

After a month, the king trusts Leo, and his sisters visit the princess.

Maya is happy; she is not alone for the first time.
