ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to say a big thank you to everyone who helped us create this book! We are very grateful to our teachers for helping us, sharing their ideas, and encouraging us to do our best. We also want to thank our headteacher and coordinators for supporting our project and giving us the chance to make our own book. A special thank you goes to our parents and families for their love, support, and encouragement along the way. Most of all, we are proud of ourselves and our classmates for working together, sharing our creativity, and turning our ideas into a real book. Thank you to everyone who was part of this amazing journey!

Once upon a time, there was a very special group of pets who lived together in a happy house full of adventures.
Mimi was a curious and elegante cat.
Piupiu was a talkative and funny cockatiel.
Josepp, the hamster, was small but full of energy.
Tito was a calm and wise turtle.
Chocolate was a Dachshund dog, long and very brave.

Each one had a unique way of being.

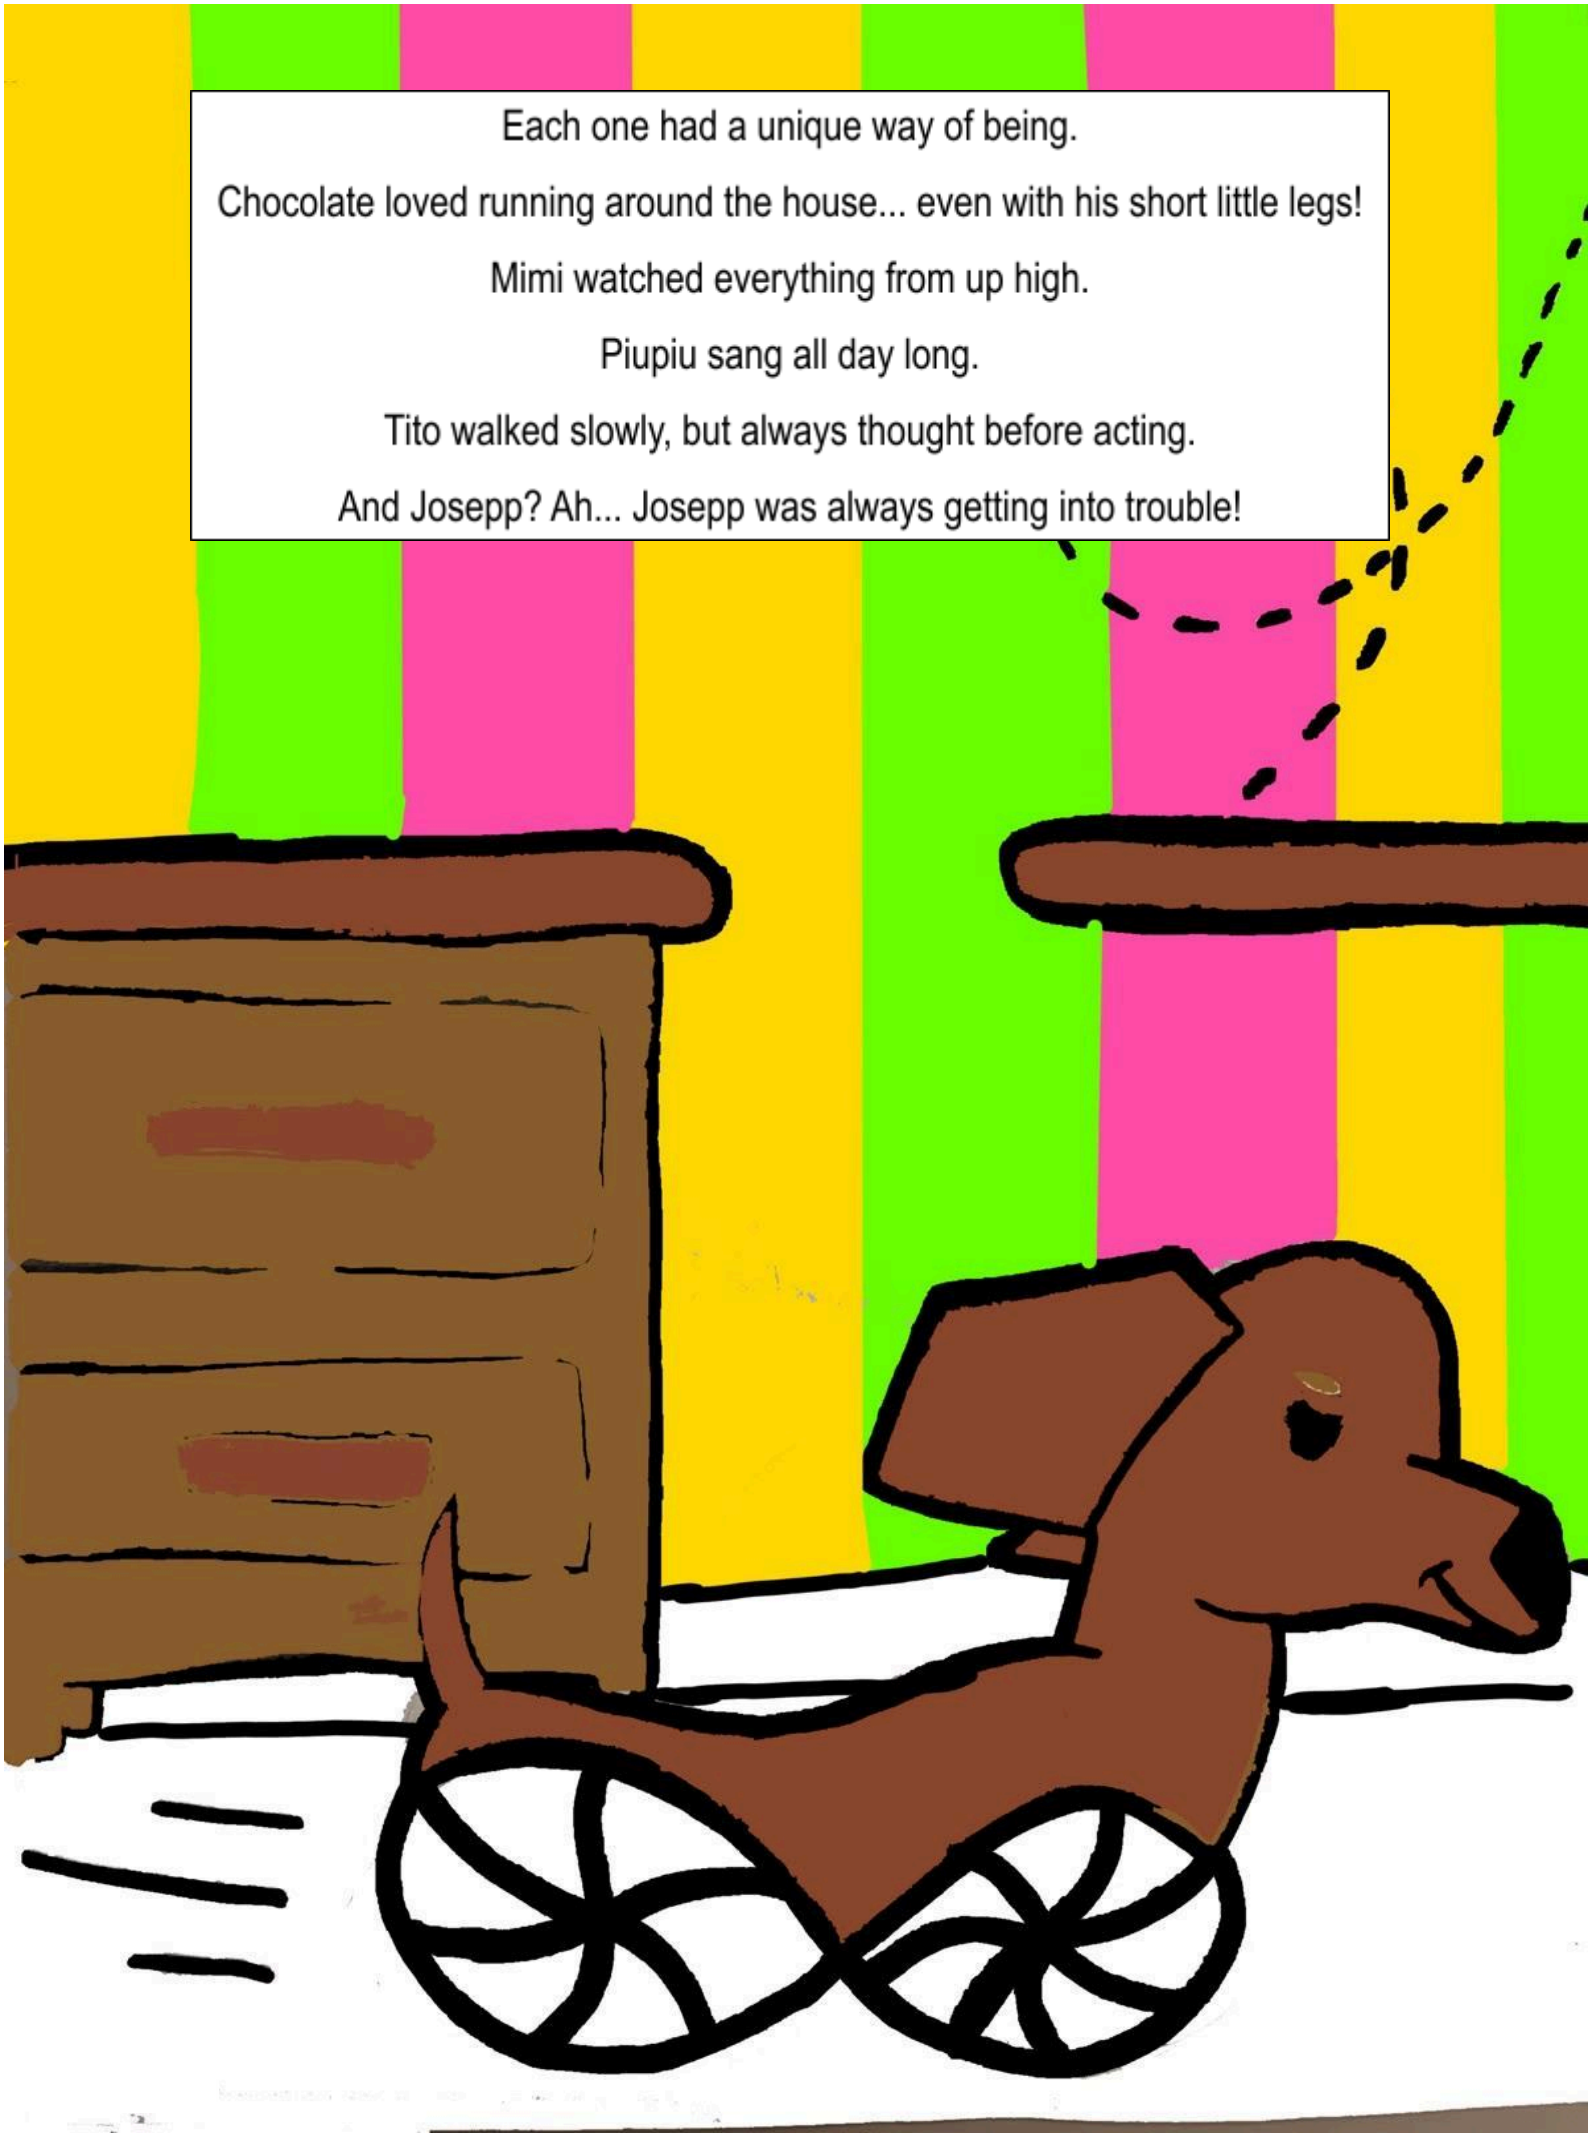

Chocolate loved running around the house... even with his short little legs!

Mimi watched everything from up high.

Piupiu sang all day long.

Tito walked slowly, but always thought before acting.

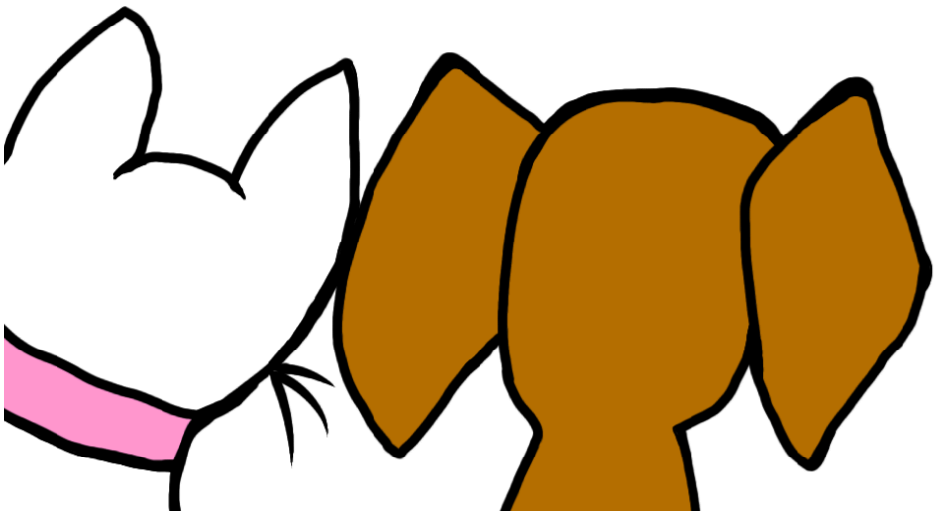

And Josepp? Ah... Josepp was always getting into trouble!

Chocolate had a secret... He thought he was a real hero!
“We are ready for any mission!”, they said.
And everyone joined the fun.
ATTENTION TEAM!

P.4

Mimi was the group's spy. Piupiu was responsible for the air alerts. Tito was the wise advisor. And Josepp... well... Josepp was the "confusion specialist."

One day, something strange happened... A pillow appeared completely destroyed in the living room!
The group began the mission. Mimi climbed onto the couch to look for clues. Piupiu flew around the room searching for signs. Tito analyzed everything calmly. And Josepp... had little pieces of cotton stuck to his mustache!
WE NEED TO INVESTI-GATE
THIS IS A SERIOUS CASE!

Josepp stayed very still… until he sneezed! And little pieces of cotton flew everywhere!

Everyone started laughing! Even Chocolate couldn't hold back:
— Case solved!

I just wanted to make a “little cloud”...

COOKIE
SUGAR
After the investigation, the reward came! Chocolate ran to eat his favorite food: couscous!
— Hmm! Heroes need energy too!
Mimi preferred a delicious pizza she found in the kitchen.
— A spy needs to eat well too!
FLOWER

At the end of the day, the heroes were tired but happy.
Today we saved the house… from the pillow!
Everyone laughed and lay down together. And so, the pets' team learned that, even with messes, laughter, and confusion, the most important thing is friendship… and living great adventures together.

CLASS BIOGRAPHY

We are the 7th grade A class. Our class is made up of students aged 11 to 13. We have studied together for a long time and get along very well, but sometimes we fight. We do many curricular and extracurricular activities. Some boys play soccer, and some girls play volleyball. We really like our school. We are very grateful for this experience and for becoming better human beings.

Chocolate, Mimi, Piupiu, Tito, and Josepp are a funny group of pets who each have a special personality and role. One day, they discover that a pillow in the living room has been destroyed, so they decide to investigate the mystery. As they search for clues, they discover that Josepp has pieces of cotton stuck to his mustache and soon realize that he was responsible for the mess. Everyone laughs, and Josepp explains that he only wanted to make a “little cloud.” After solving the mystery, the pets enjoy their favorite foods and relax together. In the end, they learn that friendship, laughter, and sharing adventures are what matter most.
