81. According to a document The Washing Post mentioned, the process which the purchased books go through is described in terms of these steps:

A) cutting the pages, scanning, recycling.
B) cleaning the book, cutting the covers, scanning.
C) selecting the pages, scanning, dumping.
D) scanning the book still intact and then cutting it.

Assunto: Interpretação de texto - Skimming (Sequência de Acontecimentos)

No oitavo parágrafo (linhas 43-47), o texto descreve a utilização de uma máquina hidráulica para cortar os livros, cujas páginas são posteriormente digitalizadas e encaminhadas à reciclagem ("The Post cites a document describing a "hydraulic powered cutting machine" that would "neatly cut" books, whose pages would be scanned, and ultimately the scanning company would "schedule with the recycling company to pick up the completed books"). Assim, a sequência cutting, scanning, recycling corresponde à ordem dos procedimentos, enquanto as demais alternativas apresentam etapas inexistentes ou uma organização diferente daquela descrita.
